Option for the location of a stall:

Stall No. _____

Options for a stall will be respected if feasible. Expressing an option for a stall location does not mean a binding booking for that stall. Allocation of stalls is the exclusive right of the AL. The AL reserves for himself the right to move stalls for organizational reasons. The move of a stall will not allow for a reduction of rent.

We offer the following brands of beer:

All brands of beer offered at the fair will be published under the exhibitor's name in a general survey and offered to the visitors for orientation.

By signing the registration form, we confirm our binding application for the proBier Bamberg at the Congress and Congress Hall of Bamberg on November 24th and 25th, 2017 and acknowledge the general terms and conditions of business, the prices and fees as legally binding. The general terms and conditions of business can be found or re-read under www.probier-bamberg.de in the internet. The named prices do not include VAT which will be added respectively.

Payment is expected strictly net by the applicant after he has received the invoice and, in each case, paid before the start of the fair.

Registration becomes binding not before the exhibitor's reception of the invoice.
